

TRACI ADAIR

Traci boasts nearly 30 years of extensive experience in the healthcare industry. She embarked on her healthcare career in locked psychiatric units as a clinical social worker, swiftly transitioning into roles focusing on authorization and revenue cycle. Throughout her career, Traci has worked across 12 states in various hospital systems, both large and small, providing consultancy on Revenue Cycle optimization with Stockamp and Associates. In addition to her consultancy work, Traci has managed numerous departments and revenue cycles for hospitals, all while actively participating in organizations such as the California Hospital Association, HFMA, and AAHAM. As a respected guest speaker, Traci has shared her expertise at events like the Cerner and Optum Forums, various podcasts, as well as HFMA and AAHAM conferences.